Closing-time practices vary widely across industries, and even among retail outlets within the same company. Once managers recognize this as an issue, they must provide explicit, written guidelines on what they expect from their employees as they deal with shoppers who are lingering around the cutoff time.

Closing time is the time when something such as a shop, library, or pub closes and people have to leave.

A few minutes before closing time he strolled into the bank and no one noticed a great bead of perspiration which stood out upon his forehead. View in context George is a waiter, he goes out at eight in the morning and does not come in till closing time, so he isn't in my way at all.
