Many community service ideas that help children, babies, and schools are much more effective when you get your friends, family, and community members on board with your idea! One of the easiest ways to recruit others to help you with your community service project is to set up a crowdfunding campaign and ask people for donations. Serving and Reaching out to Your Community We at Excellerate believe very strongly in the power of serving the community to grow the church. Serving isn't some trick to create growth, or some way to tie God's hands and force Him to grow your church, serving is a way to treat people the way God wants to see them treated, and it's the very. Reaching and Engaging with Hispanic Communities: to help service providers and educators build communication strategies to more easily and effectively reach out to Latino children and families. We are grateful for our partnership with Child Trends, the nation's leading Reaching and Engaging with Hispanic Communities.
