Oct 11, The Art of Decision-Making I've studied billionaires, talked with neuroscientists, psychologists, astronauts, and more - and from all of those conversations - I've put together a framework. As important as sound decision-making is, many executives neglect to utilize any formal decisionmaking process. As many executives know, making the wrong decision can be disastrous, if not career. The Art of Decision Making stresses reflection and imagination. Its eclectic case studies compel you to keep reading to the end. And by incorporating its insights, you will engage the subtly shifting tides of fortune and ultimately become more successful. 2.
